Dear MCTT Patrons and Subscribers,

Music City Texas Theater is pleased to announce renowned Texas singer/songwriter Robert Earl Keen will once again take the stage September 24th. Keen is considered a pioneer in the world of Americana music who skillfully blends elements of folk, jazz, country, blues, rock, Texas swing and spoken word with his wry wit and penchant for satire. His songs make people laugh, cry, dance, sing and most importantly, think. Through all of this, the common thread that runs through Keen's impressive body of work is the narrative. Robert Earl Keen is a master storyteller who stands side-by-side with the great storytellers of his era, in any genre. His new studio album Ready For Confetti is the 16th release in a celebrated career that spans 30+ years and shows no signs of slowing down. Keen has toured extensively throughout most of his career creating a loyal and extensive fanbase as a result of his years on the road.
